

Autumn Enigmas!

Riddles of the Harvest Season

Hey there, it's Lou!

See if you can solve these fun, fall riddles. Find the answers on the second page.

1. I'm not a rainbow, but I'm just as bright,
When fall comes around, I'm a beautiful sight.
Red, yellow, and orange, my colors delight.
What am I?
2. In the oven, I bake, with a sweet, spicy smell,
With a crust and some filling, in slices, I sell.
What am I?
3. I'm not cold enough to snow or sleet,
But you'll need a jacket when we meet.
What am I?
4. I am carved and I glow, keeping darkness at bay,
With a candle inside, I light up the way.
What am I?
5. When fall comes around, I say my goodbyes,
Headed south for the winter, up in the skies.
What am I?
6. Hot, sweet, and spiced, in mugs I am found,
I warm chilly hands when fall comes around.
What am I?
7. I stand tall and yellow, in fields I sway,
Farmers harvest my kernels in the light of day
What am I?
8. Tossed and kicked, under bright stadium lights,
I'm played in the fall, on cool Friday nights.
What am I?
9. I fall from tall trees, in a hard, brown shell,
Squirrels love to eat me, as you can tell.
What am I?
10. I come once a year, with candy and fright,
Ghosts, witches, and zombies come out at night.
What am I?
